NOTE:

The Tribunal must strike out an application made out of time unless it considers that, in the circumstances, the application ought not to be struck out.

In determining whether to accept an application made out of time, the Tribunal will have regard to:

- the applicant's age at the time of the criminal act
- whether the applicant is intellectually disabled or mentally ill
- whether the person who is alleged to have committed the act was in a position of trust, influence or power in relation to the applicant
- the physical or psychological effect of the act upon the applicant
- whether the delay in making the application would cause the Tribunal any difficulties in making a fair decision
- whether the applicant was a child at the time of the act and if so, whether the application is made within a reasonable time after reaching 18 years of age
- all other relevant circumstances

ANY APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME WILL BE STRUCK OUT IF THE ONLY GROUNDS ARE THAT THE APPLICANT WAS NOT AWARE OF HIS/HER RIGHT TO APPLY UNDER THIS ACT OR ANY PRECEDING ACT.
